“ I knew Margie all of my life. We grew up together on Fairhill St. in Olney, Philadelphia when she was Margie Reed. She was a few years older than Sue McErlean and I and the first one of us to have access to a car, so we all went to drive in movies, swimming pools, the bowling ally and never forget “Greenwood Dairy “. Margie went with me when I passed my driving exam when I was 16! Then she started dating Joe and the friendship shifted a bit. I was a bridesmaid in their wedding and honored to be young Margie’s godmother. I watched her as a young mother, then doting grandmother and saw her happiness revolve around her enlarging family.

When I moved to Boston we saw less of each other but our meetings then occurred in our “happy place”, Wildwood, NJ. I have lots of restaurant photos with the McErlean’s, the McCaffrey’s and sometimes lots of extended family members at our annual dinners there.

I’ve lost a dear friend and I mourn with her entire family, RIP, Margie.

“ I was blessed to live next door to the McErleans on Holly Lane. Mrs. McErlean was a kind, full of energy, generous person that was always doing things for others. From being involved at Saint Charles School, taking the neighborhood kids on day trips to the shore, and helping neighbors on Holly Lane. She was the neighborhood mom whose door was always open. My condolences to Mr. McErlean, Joe, Mike, and Margie. She was a spectacular person that will be missed. Love, Maureen Roddy-Cassidy

“ I have known Margie for over 20 years while seeing each other at our hair or nail appointment day, chatting about our life experiences. I will deeply miss those times and her charm while now knowing she is at peace, hopefully with her hair and nails done to her liking. R.I.P dear friend. “ I hope everyone takes a moment to share a special memory or picture of my incredible mother in law. It would mean so much to our girls and all of her grandchildren to read and see pictures of memories and moments shared by everyone's lives she touched. We know it was so many ❤️

I had the privilege of knowing Margie over 20 years. I only saw her once a year. I am the Santa that she brought her family to see every year at G-boys. It started when Mackenzie was an infant and I got to see the family grow each year. Margie always impressed me with her Organization. She knew what pictures she wanted and kept everything moving. It wasn't till after G-boys closed that I really got to know her. Her daughter Margie invited me to their family Christmas dinner. I was then able to see her at her happiest. Sitting next to her husband with her family gathered around. I will miss that smile . My condolences to all the family RIP Margie ❤️❤️❤️👴 .
