“ Mark lived on Lebanon Avenue, between Love Pharmacy and Orlando's Bakery. He visited Love Pharmacy almost daily. He kept us informed about what was happening in the neighborhood, and took a special interest in the calls the Engine 54 went out on.

Mark was a kind and caring man. He was quick to give you a warm hello and a smile. He loved to talk to little children, and tell their Moms how cute they were.

I am sure that his parents, and his brother, Joe, were thrilled to welcome Mark into heaven. May Mark rest in God's perfect peace.
