“ Mary was one of a kind. I was lucky to grow up with her as a neighborhood mom as well as a good and loyal friend to my mother, Marge. My vivid memory of her from childhood was her smile and her style, which I admired from the time I was 5. Memories of the only garage in the neighborhood abound. Thanks, Mary, for the memories.

“ Her bright smile and Irish eyes will certainly be missed. She sang her way through life. Just mention a beautiful song and Aunt Mary was singing it. I especially loved hearing "Irish Eyes." She sang it like she wrote it. She's in a perfect place now along with her parents and brother and many others she knew and loved. God bless Aunt Mary and her family. Cookie
