“ Mary, I just texted you on the 4th of March and you told me you were coming home from the hospital and getting your vaccine on the 9th. Imagine our shock when we found out almost a month later that you were gone! I will miss seeing you outside (We live across the street on the corner at #73) grilling up your dinner. We always did our spring clean-up at the same time and it was so great to know you were there just a text away. Thanks for fixing my gutter and looking out for me when Dave was in the hospital. You were the only person I told at first. You were the BEST neighbor ever and you will be missed very much. My sympathies to your brother, his wife, and your whole family that you spoke so highly of. Warmest wishes, Rebecca and David Edds

“ My dear childhood friend, I am so sorry to see you leave, and so suddenly, we were just texting days before!
I have so many wonderful memories of us growing up, walking to school together, playing in our backyards, sharing hopes and dreams. As we got older, I was always older as you would like to point out, our relationship became more dear to me though we were many miles apart. I will miss those phone calls and emails as we continued to share our lives with each other, good times and bad. I will miss your voice but will carry so many precious memories, until we meet again.
Thank you for sharing your life with me, sweet friend! May you be at peace. I love you!

“ OMG! “Gray Brain” I’m going to miss the heck out of you! I will miss your smile, our talks & your wonderful memory. Your absence will be felt when my birthday text & phone call never come as it had over 37 yrs. You never missed one, even when you were fighting for your life. I pray for you and all of your family. I hope you are resting now and dancing a disco dance for all of your long time friends. I love ❤️ you my friend. Until we meet again. 🥰
