

Maryann Housley

November 18, 1947 - May 25, 2025

Maryann Housley (nee McMonagle), of Maple Shade, passed away on May 25, 2025. Born in Philadelphia, PA to the late John and Lillian (nee Brown) McMonagle, she was 77 years old.

Maryann was predeceased by her husband, Terry J. Housley, who passed in 2021. She is survived by her son, John K. Housley, as well as many extended family members and friends.

Maryann worked as a teacher's aide for the Maple Shade School District for many years.

Services will be private. To share your condolences and memories, please visit www.Givnish.com.

Tribute Wall

DG

“Maryann was one of a kind. She took her job very seriously and provided support, love and kindness to her kids. Her generosity for families during the holidays was unbelievable. It was always about the kids for her. Rest easy Maryanne.”

Dan Gaffney - May 27, 2025 at 12:32 PM

ML

What a wonderful lady!!! Maryann was always so generous and did everything with a smile. May she rest in peace.

Marie L. - May 27, 2025 at 10:14 PM

Maryann was my neighbor for over thirty years on Glendale Avenue. She was one tough cookie with a wonderful heart. She kept an eye on my boys at Yocum School and make sure they received a Hess Truck for Christmas every year. Ralph and my sons had done many a chore for Maryann and Terry over the years. They were always a part of our family gatherings with a sweet treat in hand. Give Terry a hug from me, rest in peace Maryann. Love Dawn

Dawn Prate - May 28, 2025 at 06:48 PM

KB

I worked with Maryann for many years at Howard Yocum School in Maple Shade. She was one of the most thoughtful and caring people I have ever met. You will be missed Maryann.

Kathy Burrows

Kathy Burrows - May 29, 2025 at 07:34 AM

KD

Maryann was a proud staff member at Yocum Elementary School in Maple Shade, her hometown that she loved. Many Monday mornings Maryann would sneak prizes into classrooms for "her teachers" to place in their prize boxes. She was an asset to the staff, watching over many students through the years. An avid Phillies fan, Maryann faithfully cheered on her boys of summer.

You leave behind wonderful memories with both staff, students, and friends you gathered along your earthly journey. May you rest in peace Maryann.

Katie Down and Michelle Denault.

Katie Down - May 29, 2025 at 12:07 PM

CC

Maryann was a true light in the community. Keeping our kids safe and always w a smile. From kindergarten I went to school w John and my gram knew both Terry and Maryann I remember going there and playing when I was a lil girl. Rest in peace and I pray a peace beyond understanding takes hold of John as he maneuvers the next few days and I can only imagine the hurt he's feeling as when I lost my gram Mrs Andreano I felt like my world imploded. May God be w you all!

carolynn Caroselli - June 03, 2025 at 02:20 AM