A life long fan of the New York Giants and early devotee to the Las Vegas Golden Knights, the NHL team of the city where he and Jenna frequently visited and created many loving memories.

Mike was fond of all things automotive - from the customized Mustang GT he owned in his younger years to the NASCAR races he watched often. More recently, Mike experienced fun and thrills with his newly purchased side-by-side that he would take off road every weekend with his best friend, Mike.

While he was taken from his family and friends far too soon, Mike always tried to make the best of his time with them. He always had a smile and an infectious positive attitude to anyone he came in contact with. Mike will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all those who were lucky enough to know him.
