

Morgan Janice Strauss

April 24, 1988 - August 5, 2019

Morgan Janice Strauss (nee Rozanski), of Marlton, NJ, passed away peacefully at her home after a courageous and valiant fight against cancer on August 5, 2019. She was 31 years old.

Morgan is survived by her beloved husband of 8 years, Christopher B. Strauss; her 3 children, Daniel Angelo, Brody Jonathan, and Audrey Doris; her parents, Paul and Heidi Cuneo; her grandmothers, Janice Thomas and Doris Cuneo, and many other aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members and friends who will miss her tremendously.

Morgan graduated from Eastern High School in Voorhees. She received an Associate degree from Camden County Community College, and completed her Bachelor degree at the Jefferson School of Nursing. Morgan furthered her education at Phoenix University, where she earned her Masters in Nursing Education. She was currently working at Virtua Hospital in Voorhees in the Mother/Baby Unit, and also teaching OB Clinical Skills at Jefferson and Rowan Universities. She absolutely adored taking care of the newborn babies and their mothers. Morgan was driven, intelligent, and loved her career. Most of all, she cherished being a mother to her three children, which was her greatest joy.

“ I've known Paul since he was in middle school through my son Tom. I have been praying for Morgan and the entire family since I learned of her illness and was so saddened to hear that she had passed away. From all of the tributes I see on this page she certainly was a remarkable, loving and caring person. Such a loss to so many. You were blessed to have her. Continued prayers for all.

“ Morgan was a sweet soul. I knew her first as someone dating a co-worker - a friend - then getting married, having children. She helped plan a small baby shower for him after work; and even after I had left that firm we were lucky enough to have her there when we had both our daughters at Virtua. She always had a smile on her face, especially when talking about Chris and their children. I'm happy to have known her and I'll remember that smile.

“ Morgan was very simply, a lovely human being. You couldn't be in a bad mood around her. She would always smile that sweet smile as if she was happy to see you just to say hello. She will be so very missed at the hospital. I am so incredibly and sincerely sorry to her family for her loss. ”

“ Morgan was my nurse when I delivered my son two years ago. To say she was amazing is an understatement. There aren't many words to convey just how incredible of a nurse that she was. Somehow in those three days that I was in the hospital her and I just clicked. She would come into my room with such grace and compassion. We often found ourselves just chatting away about life and about our boys. We both had two boys at the time. She definitely left a lasting impression on me that I will truly never ever forget. When I heard of her passing I was devastated. The world and the nursing world truly lost a light that can never be replaced. Keeping all of her family and friends in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Morgan, I will miss you deeply. You were one of my good friends. You were my family. I wont forget the stories we shared about our boys and all the fun times we had at work and outside of work. I wont forget you hiding your box of cereal behind my computer at the nurse's station when you were pregnant with Audrey because it was one of your cravings and you knew I wouldnt let anyone touch it. Morgan, I will think of you each and everyday fir the rest of my life.

“ While I only knew Morgan for the 12 hours she was our mommy/baby nurse, she forever impacted our lives. She had such kindness, compassion, gentleness, but also kicked my butt and helped me to be stronger then I thought I could be. She was a perfect nurse and I truly think of her every day! Morgan has left a legacy and touched lives beyond comprehension! You will all be in our prayers!!!

“ My favorite memory of Morgan is my first. Paul and I have been good friends since 8th Grade. We hung out together all through high school. We both knew Heidi as well. When our 10th reunion came up we decided we'd go. Paul and Heidi kind of hit it off at that time. Some while after the reunion I found out they had stayed in touch. Some time after that Paul was seeing Heidi regularly. He may have been fast on the basketball court, but, relationships were not his strength. This development was kind of exciting because Paul was always so quiet. One of our friends once described what Paul was like during high school as only saying, "like two words and those were Hut-Hut". Paul and I would occasionally play a round of golf or get together for lunch or dinner. When I would inquire as to how things were going "with Heidi" he would say, "Great!" then he would proceed to tell me story after story about Morgan and the funny stuff she would say and how cute she was and how much fun she was. It was obvious that Morgan had quickly wiggled her way into his heart and soon had him wrapped around her little finger. And, Paul was happy to have it that way. Morgan always seemed to me to be a "participator" and not a "bystander". Someone who enjoys taking part. While at Eastern High School Morgan was maybe not the caliber athlete that many of her peers were. But, still took part as best she could and there was Paul attending games whenever possible to support her, even if she didn't play that much. This big guy who was an elite athlete in his day didn't care that Morgan wasn't among the best. Paul was the head of the Morgan Fan Club. She meant that much to him. In recent years when we have gotten together, I hear that same kind of joy and excitement in Paul's voice when talking about his grandchildren. She had to be very special because she made my tough athlete buddy Paul into a big love muffin.

“ Morgan was one of my favorite dance students who always had a bright smile and her lively personality made class with her a joy. As life always comes full circle, Morgan was my OB nurse after the birth of my son just 4 short years ago. Her smile, again, lit up my room! Her sweet compassion, knowledge, and amazing passion for nursing, was a blessing to many mother and babies she helped at Virtua! God Bless your family and may your smile shine down on us all.

*Morgan, we will never know why God chose you to leave this earth so early, but you are an inspiration to all of us. Your strength and faith....amazing. You said to me one day I'm not sure what God's plan is, but I know he has a plan. I know you and God will be watching over Chris and your little ones. I was more than glad to help with your care at Penn and will always cherish that visit we had. I know you are at peace now with the heavenly father and no longer in pain.
