“ It has been said "A good name is better than good oil, and the day of death is better than the day of birth." , Because at birth a person has no established reputation. His life course however, will result in either a positive or a negative reputation. There is no doubt that Mr. Burton had a good reputation with those who crossed paths with him. He touched the lives of so many. For myself, I will always remember the laughs in his office at CHS, our arguments over the cowboys and eagles, our Alpha Phi Beta meetings at his home, and the many Saturday morning breakfast we had at Paula's or any other diner off route 130 with him and my grandfather. I am deeply saddened by his passing and my heart is heavy for his sons and their families. Although I am not able to make it to the funeral "may the God of all comfort" give comfort and strength to the family at this time. Sleep well Mr. B

Much love,

“ My heart is heavy with the passing of my dear friend and mentor, Brother Morris Burton. Since I began at Cinnaminson HS in 1998, Mr. Burton took me under his wing as he did with countless others. Some of my fondest memories of High School are laughing with Mr. Burton in his office while Tom Joyner played in the background. Mr. Burton's office was a place to escape the pressure of school and life as a teenager...at least until he realized you were trying to skip class and sent you back to class (with a hall pass of course). But Mr. Burton's dedication to his students was not limited to the walls of CHS, as he helped hold Ebony club meetings, HBCU bus trips, and fraternity meetings in his home. Mr. Burton's door was always open, and that continued even after HS as he continued to keep tabs on me through college, my career, and as I began a family. It was truly a blessing to have had such positive influence in my life. Mr. Burton's humble, kind, and generous spirit has impacted the lives of so many...most certainly mine. I know Mr. Burton, once again reunited with his beloved wife Mrs. Jacquelyn Burton, is smiling down on us. Although not able to make the service, my family and I would like to extend prayers and our heartfelt condolences to the family of Brother Morris Burton. He was most certainly loved and will truly be missed.

“ Mr. Burton was intuitively aware when a child was in need. He knew, if a child is missing alot of school, that there's a bigger reason than the child just not wanting to go.

I attended Cinnaminson High School from 1990-1994.

Mr. Burton would always give a false disappointed frown, when I'd visit the attendance office, but he would ALWAYS give me his great smile before I left his office within the few minutes I was there to address an absence.

Can you imagine that the small moments of kindness Mr. Burton showed truly helped me? He was just that awesome. Truly an amazing man.

My high school life was fraught with social anxiety, at that time, undiagnosed (but now no longer an issue).

In the 70s, 80s, and 90s, we weren't as tuned in to these conditions kids exhibited...

In my sophomore year, I missed around 35-40 days of school. I had notes, but I still had to go to post-sessions held in summer, after school let out, to sit and make up class room hours. Mr. Burton was also in the post-session classroom.

It's readily apparent Mr. Burton just knew when a child needed some special attention, or acceptance, and like many great teachers, did his part to help those kids.

Mr. Burton, thank you. Thank you for being who you were. You made my life a bit easier, when it was hardest for me.

My sincerest condolences to family and friends. May the warmest memories we have provide you some solace. Blessings.

*I am sadden to hear of the passing of Morris Burton. I was a teacher in Delran schools for 32 years before retiring and knew him as a colleague in the Delran School District and as a fellow neighbor in Delran Township. Morris had a great smile, a good sense of humor and warm spirt. Condolences to his family and may the fond memories of his life bring them comfort in the sad days to come. Be at peace, for Morris is now resting in peace with the Lord.
With love,

“ I was saddened to hear about Morris. He was a gentlemen, showed kindness to all who knew him, and was very personable. His honesty with me regarding students that we both knew was invaluable to my success as a teacher at Cinnaminson HS. Morris made a difference in the lives of administrators, teachers, students, and support staff. RIP Morris. Prayers going to your family and friends as they mourn your passing into the next life. 🙏🙏🙏🙏💕
