“ Aunt Nancy was truly special and will be deeply missed. I'll never forget the kindness and warmth of your mom calling and talking with me when Richie passed. Catching me up on everyone. She talked so warmly of you three and her grandkids. May her love continue to guide you. She was such a beautiful person, and I will cherish the memories I had with her when I used to babysit you three. When your Dad passed, I remember sitting and talking with her before I went to sleep on the couch. It feels like yesterday.

Nancy loved music all her life. I loved listening to her play the piano. I knew she also played the organ at the church. I was so proud of her talents. She had a wonderful voice and filled me in on events upcoming with the Sweet Adelines (Jersey Sound Chorus) to bring joy to others.

Losing your last parent is one of life's most heartfelt losses. This was so surreal and sudden. Blessings, warm thoughts and prayers to you all. There will always be a place in my heart for your mom, Nancy and you all.

Love you ❤️

Your cousin, Cindy (Smith) Stirne

“ Nancy was one of the sweetest and thoughtful women I have ever met. We shared a love of bowling and cats. I know I speak for all of us on the bowling league that she will be greatly missed. Rest in peace, my friend. God needed another choir member.
