“ Words can express how sorry I am for the loss of your Wife, Mother, sister and Dear Friend. Pam was truly a sweet, kind caring person and an inspiration to me. She and I share the same love for our community, our schools and our children. She and I worked closely this summer on a project she cared so deeply about and she never stopped. The entire time not feeling well. Pam you will be truly missed by so many. Rest in Peace!

“ Pam was a dear, caring friend and a devoted mother. She wanted very much to be part of special events taking place in Cinnaminson and volunteered to be a judge at the Invention Convention and a participant for many years with Matt, running the Turtles of the Pompeston station. She even managed to come to this year's water festival on Friday, October 10, She will be greatly missed.Elaine Mendelow
