“ My sister Pat always had a funny joke to tell. There was a time when we all lived close to one another. Delores on Lochmoor, Pat on Country Club, Me on Country Club and Judy on Gaukler. So long ago & now we live in so many cities miles apart. You will remain in my heart my big sister, love Bob

“ Kristine and Karen,

Just wanted to mention all of the great memories of your mom during my multiple sleep-overs on Currier street as a little girl. Playing with our dolls, swimming in your pool and making wonderful memories. She was so funny. Thinking of you two with deepest sympathies.

“ Aunt Pat was the funniest person in the entire Rabe family. She was always quick with a quip, a funny comment, a punchline, a joke or a gag. She made everyone laugh, and she got great joy herself in doing that no matter where she was. Her wit, humour and good nature was infectious, and her fearlessness to say something funny, to say something everyone else thought but wouldn't dare say, was remarkable and something to behold. She loved to laugh herself, but really loved making others do so as well. One of my daughters, after seeing her again as an adult, said Pat was the kind of woman she wanted to be when she got older. Pat was an independent, colourful character and every family gathering, for many decades, was better for her presence, her irreverence and her big personality. I always looked forward to seeing her. She will be deeply missed. My condolences to Karen, Kristine and their families.

“ Pat had a wonderful sense of humour and lively energy. The first time I met her, she immediately started telling me funny stories about her day and memories of her life. It felt like I had known her for years. I liked being around her because her visits always included a smile. Energy doesn't die. It carries on. Thanks for yours, Pat.
