“ Just finding out that she passed - I will truly miss her love and friendship ... I will always remember her making me promise to come to her house for dinner within the first 5 minutes of meeting her - and that was just the beginning of a wonderful friendship 14 years ago ... she was such a great woman who loved her children and husband deeply - always telling you a story about them with a grin and a laugh ... such a kind and caring soul that you knew she really meant it when she said I love you ... She is now with her husband, so I know she has found peace ... Rest In Peace Pat - I'll see you on the other side

“ We all have a legacy to leave the world when we pass and my dear sweet, kind and gentle Aunt Pat imprinted on the world a sense innocent joy and faith in her fellow man. She was an archive of memories and perhaps the most engaging storyteller I have met in my life time. Her unique ability to be present in every moment enabled her with exacting precision to regale us with a snapshot in time. She enthralled her audiences (sometimes captured) but nonetheless with every textural aspect of the event, She effortlessly transported us an active participant into a treasured time in her life event. While most of these memories included her beloved family, she often captured the interest of strangers wherever she went. My mother often teased Aunt Pat saying, "Sweetheart you would talk to a brass pole if it was shiny enough to see a reflection." She possessed this infectious smile and a warmhearted nature that allowed her to fearlessly interact with strangers who quickly were transformed into friends.

My Aunt Pat was this incredibly colorful, energetic, thoughtful, and tender loving individual who I was fortunate enough to know. I will certainly miss her twinkling smile and her giddy laughter that brought so much joy to my life. So in her memory take the time to cherish your family and open your heart to a new experience with a stranger because the sweetest part of life is being present in every moment.

“ So sad to hear about Aunt Patsy passing away. Always loved her spirit and passion for family, Maple Shade, OLPH and the Phillies! Also, I loved teasing her and hearing the stories about her youth and Uncle Al. She was one of my daughters' biggest fans at softball and basketball games. My condolences to Alfredo, Patricia and family-she was a special lady. Anthony Kiefner

“ I have known Mrs. Gregory my entire life. She was always so full of life and spunk, and ready to greet everyone with a smile and a hug. I'm so happy my daughter had a chance to get to know her, and we will not forget the good times we shared like a "friendship party", a day at the movies, and an ice cream party. My deepest sympathy to her family- they have lost a true treasure.
