

Patricia M. Millilo

February 23, 1943 - March 11, 2023

Patricia M. Millilo “Patt” (nee Conrad) February 23, 1943 - March 11, 2023. Beloved wife of 51 years to the late Richard R. Millilo. Devoted daughter of John Conrad and Mary (nee Onufrak). Adored mother of Donna (James Newsome), Rick (Kim McBride), Steven (Mimi Echenique) David (Meredith DelBuono) and the late Linda. Loving MomMom to her 5 grandchildren; Kaitlin, Ashley, Madison, Tristan and Christopher Fox.

Patt is a very proud graduate of Notre Dame Academy and Pierce College. Growing up, she spent most summers at her family beach house in Wildwood, NJ where she met her husband Richard Millilo in 1959. After their wedding, Patt and Richard moved from Philadelphia, PA to Cinnaminson, NJ in 1962 and began to build their family.

Patt had very eclectic interests. She was very involved in the PTA, the arts, crafting and took great pride making costumes for her children to compete in their school’s Halloween contest. Patt was an avid gardener, bird watcher, and reader. She had great passion of listening to music, going to art museums, movies, plays, and musicals. She made every holiday an event with good food, her famous pies and decorations. She loved to travel with her husband Richard and family and had the privilege to travel around the world from Hawaii to Asia to Europe to their last adventure for their 50th anniversary to Africa. But her absolute favorite place to visit with the family were the annual trips to Walt Disney World. Patt loved Walt Disney World so much she used to say, "I know when I go to heaven, it will be just like going to Walt Disney World everyday".

She was a devout Catholic where attending mass everyday was paramount. Because her faith was extremely important she became a Eucharistic Minister at St. Charles Borromeo and then Sacred Heart in Riverton, NJ. She was an active chapel guardian, volunteered at the St. Charles Carnival, meals on wheels, decorated the church for the Christmas holidays and distributed communion to those that were homebound.

Patt's greatest joy was her family, especially the grandchildren and attending as many of their events as possible.

Her kind spirit will be greatly missed by family and friends, yet will live on with the lives she has touched.

Friends and relatives are invited to Patricia's Life Celebration on Friday, March 17th from 9:45 am to 11 am followed by her Funeral Mass at 11 am at Sacred Heart Church of Riverton, 103 4th, Riverton NJ 08077
