“ deeply saddened by this news. Pat was maybe my best "girl" friends (not to be confused with girlfriend) ever and , as some of you know, for the longest time. pat, when you were there it became a party and i also had a dance partner especially for j'bug and twist. you will be missed immensely by the "Group" but, we'll save your seat at the dances and other gatherings and functions. she "hung out " with us as long as she could, even planning on coming to a dance only 3 weeks ago then cancelling at the last minute but, swore she'd be at the next one. i believe i can speak for all in our circle that she will be remembered fondly and lovingly. one pic is the "formal pic" from our class of "65", 50th reunion oct 2015 and the other pic from an all year reunion in aug 2017 with "65" classmates. gene samero

“ Family was Pat's priority. She made every gathering and holiday special with creative games to get things going for the family & friends that were present. Godspeed Pat. Much love.
