“ *Grandma,
I miss you so much today as of everyday. It was always so fun to come to your house and make gnocchis or go to the dollar store or dig in the change jar. No matter what, we always had so much fun with you. It brings me comfort to know you are at peace now. I love you so much and not a day goes by that I don't think about you.
Love,
Melissa*

“ Mom, I miss you very much. You will be terribly missed and your memory cherished by the kids and I, forever. I lost a best friend, as well as a mother. I realize now more than ever, what an inspiration you were not only in my life, but in so many others that you touched. Everyone says you made each person in your life, or people you would meet, feel like they were something special. As we move on in life, I will remind myself and the kids to think "what would Grandma do"? and how you led your life by example. I love you and miss you very much !! Love Robert

“ Dearest Pat, Your first Christmas in Heaven will undoubtedly be your best and though we'll all miss you, we are very happy for you. You are my dear sister-in-law who always made me feel much more like a sister. I was so glad that I was able to spend some time w/ you in November. I know that you will remember all of us here. Give Art and Jack a hug from me. Love from all the Schultzs here, Helen

“ Dear Aunt Pat, We met for the first time almost seventeen years ago, when Andy and I were about to be married. He'd had wonderful things to say about you, and upon meeting you, I agreed with him on every count. You took a genuine interest in people's lives, and in conversation, had a way of making them feel heard. You loved to laugh, and your sense of humor was a gift to be envied. You will be missed by many.

“ I met Pat, when my cousin , Art married her and over the years we enjoyed her company at the Schultz family reunions, weddings and casual get togethers. She was very easy to talk to and always made everyone feel so good. I regret not going to visit her over Thanksgiving while in Medford. My sincere sympathy to all of her family and I hope all the happy memories help with the sad loss at this painful time. I like to think of her as reunited with my cousin Art who has been waiting a very long time for her. We love you Pat.

“ Aunt Pat-As a child, one quickly learns that adults are busy. Somehow, I never learned that about you. When I told a story, you always asked me questions about it. You asked me about my life as if I was doing something truly important, even when it involved something that other adults would consider menial. You found humor in the situation, and would help me laugh when things did not go my way. You taught me to love others through listening, a lesson I work on today with my own children, yet I still have not mastered it as you had. Life gives us many teachers. I am saddened that you are no longer among mine. But I draw comfort from the fact that your personal suffering has ended, and you and my Uncle Art are once again one- you completed each other as few couples do.

“ We enjoyed our time together. What fun we had meeting for tennis. I thought I was pretty good and that I could beat my older cousin, Pat, easily. She won everytime by a large margin. Her garden with Phil was wonderfully planted with my favorites like arugula which was generously given to us. Pat will be missed by all that knew her. When I think of Art, my cousin, I'm saddened at his early demise. Pat and Art had a wonderful family and life. Both gone too soon.

“ I only had the opportunity to meet Pat on a few occasions but her kind, caring nature and her sense of fun were immediately obvious. My wife has said such wonderful things about her. I am glad Scarlett and I got to meet her.

“ My sincerest condolences to all of the Schultz family. Pat was a wonderful woman, full of life. Family was most important to her. Pat and I share the love of Eric, Macauly, Melissa and Joy as well as Jaylin. I always had the deepest respect for her and her values. I considered her family, as well as a friend. Knowing she is out of pain from an illness she fought valiantly for many years is some comfort. I know her Grandchildren are devastated by her loss. Jerry and I will miss her. May she rest in peace. Love to all of you, Doris and Jerry

“ November 31, 2012 My sister, my friend, Pat, was a beautiful big sister to me all of her life. I have always appreciated her, not only growing up with her but also as adults sharing our lives together, our families, our friends, events, just about everything. She was a wonderful wife and mother. I always looked to her for advise. She was an example to all with her kindness, strength and generosity just to mention a few of her qualities. Well Pat, I miss you already. May God keep you in the palm of His hand until we meet again. Carol

“ Aunt Pat, You were a wonderful woman who always had a welcoming smile and sweet nature about you. You always showed such a great interest in my life and my family and I will always appreciate that. I could have sat at our dining room table for hours last time you were at my mom and dad's house listening to you, my dad and Aunt Carol tell stories. You were a comedy team together. Your laugh was infectious. I will always carry those stories and your memory with me forever. God bless you. Your Niece, Lynda

“ Pat thought everyone was special (talented, generous, beautiful, smart...) when in fact it was her warm and loving acceptance of each of us that made us special. As my Aunt Betty, who prayed for Pat every day, said on hearing of her death, " She was easy to like". Love, Aunt Peggy

“ My sister, Pat, kept us safe as kids with her nightly sprinkle of holy water. As adults she kept us connected with her holiday gatherings and annual Donato picnic. She valued family above all. She will be greatly missed. Tony
