“ I met Pat when he was still in middle school. He was always so happy and joked around so much. He was all around a great person. He will truly be missed by everyone who ever met him. His life was cut way to short. My condolences go out to his family. I will keep you all in my prayers. You created a great son and he became a great man too. I haven't seen him in a couple years but as soon as I had my daughter in December he was one of the very first people to congratulate me. I will miss him so much and he will always have a place in my heart. Im so sorry for your loss. Sencerly Lizabeth Black

“ My prayers and condolences go out to the Gaffney family! Patrick was one of the most awesome people I've ever known. He would literally do anything for just about anyone and he had a great heart. And if it weren't for Anthony Schepis who introduced me to him I've never would've had such a great friend. Words can't describe how much you will be missed rest in peace Patrick Gaffney love you brother ❤️ I'll see you again someday

“ The world lost an amazing person. I can still picture his ear to ear smile, it was contagious. He had a beautiful way of looking at the world and when we were in each other's lives I always knew I could rely on him. It may have been years since we've spoken but I know he will be greatly missed by so many. My thoughts are with the Gaffney/Gordon family during this hard time.

“ R.I.P Pat, gonna miss the good times we had, the one party I threw, where my fish tank was knocked over and water everywhere, to when I needed you to pull my car out with your white dodge pick up. Watching you growing up from when you first moved in, wood fence around the yard and the sandbox by the old shed.

Playing baseball in your yard and hitting them into the street. To where you bummed a cig off me everynight.

Definitely gonna miss you man.

Sad to hear what happen and I wish there was a way to know about it, to possibly save the next person, any person from the sudden.

Crazy world we live in, and for you to go now, this young. Really puts life in perspective. You never know. I'll see you again man. Don't know when. But I'll definitely meet you at the cross roads. Miss ya Pat. Your in a better place with no pain, no stress. God took you to soon, but there's a reason, people may not know or comprehend. Til then. God rest your soul. R.I.P

“Where do I begin... Pat was my first boyfriend and true love. Almost 4 years of my life were spent with him every day, those days were some of the best times of my life. I could go on and on forever about all of the memories we shared. Some of my favorite were that he loved going to the movies, we probably went to the movies at least 4-8 times a month. We also used to sit in and play video games all night, it was the best. He moreover loved to go on walks, we used to walk for hours on summer nights talking about everything. He loved going riding, we went to Philly with all of his friends to ride his quad on day, it was probably the most fun I've ever had! I loved mornings with him, he would wake up and immediately start cooking breakfast or we would go to his house and his mom would make breakfast for us (Thank you Mrs. Gaffney). One funny memory I have is when he wanted to teach me how to drive. He had his dad's green Taurus because he would NEVER let me drive his truck! I don't even think we got half way down my street and I almost went up a curb because I didn't know what pedal was the break (Sorry Mr. Gaffney!). We stopped the car and switched spots and he said we'll try again in a month lol. He always looked out for my well-being, when I didn't have too many people in my life to help me, he and his family were always there for me. He always told me how important school was, and I would use excuses that I didn't have a ride to school to try and stay home with him. He would make me get in the car to drop me off or he would have his mom pick me up to take me lol (Thank you Mrs. Gaffney). Like I said I could go on and on with my memories shared with him but one thing I will always remember is, he was the best of friend that anyone could ask for. Despite us splitting up, we always stayed in touch and remained close. He was always there for me. He taught me so many great things and if it wasn't for him I wouldn't be the person I am today. I will miss you so much Patrick you left me with a lot of amazing memories that I will cherish forever. Please continue to guide me in the right direction as you always have<3.

“ Patrick,

I hope you know how loved you were. I just wanted to let you know how honored I was to be your Aunt. I am so happy we spent time together last weekend at Brian's house. I loved how you told me how proud you were of your brother Chris. You also told me you have the "best parents". I second that Pat. They were always there for you. You were loved not only by your family but also by so many of your friends. I am reading all of the post and this just goes to show you the person you really were. You will always hold a special place in my heart Pat. I will love and miss you forever. Please give Pop Pop, Timmy and Michael a big hug for me.

"Patrick, of all the many blessings, however great or small to have had you for a nephew was the greatest one of all. The family chain is broken now and nothing seems the same, but as God takes us one by one, the chain will link again.
