“ Pat will always be "You damned McMurphy" to me. He was so much fun, such a wonderful spirit, and a perfect McMurphy in "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest."

As adults, I got to enjoy his cooking skills and shared the once-in-a-lifetime experience of the Eagles Super Bowl Parade. We talked about our various ups and downs, but Pat never failed to crack me up. I will miss his daily posts and jokes. I will miss his encouragement and commiserations about the Eagles. I am sad I never got to "pirate" with him. Plus, now who's gonna teach Dave and me how to cook and mix drinks?

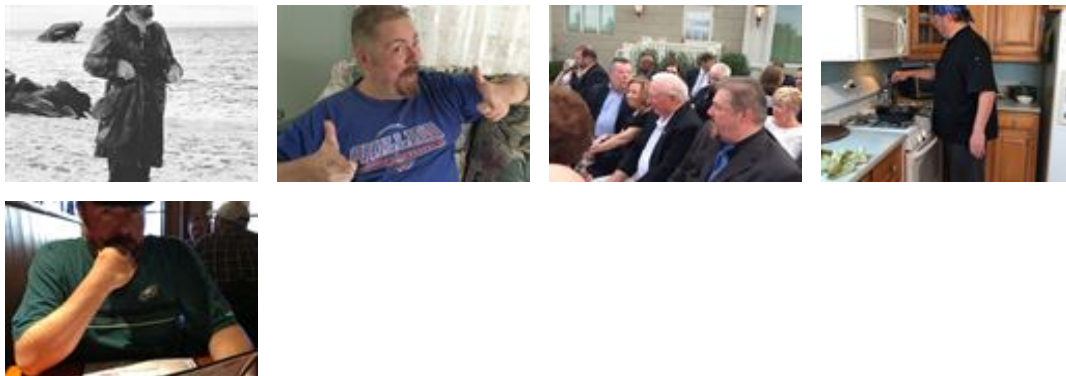

Love you and miss you, Pat. ❤️

“ Where to start. I have so many wonderful memories of Pat. He was the 1st person who befriended me in the the 4th grade. I just moved to Marlton in 79 and didn't know anyone. He invited me to sit with him at lunch, and introduced me to Kenny and Lisa. I've remained friends with Pat throughout Highschool and then reconnected with him when I moved to west philly. We shared lots of good times and laughs. We had plans to get together a couple weeks ago. Pat, you will missed beyond words. Love you big guy! Xo
