

Phyllis A. White

February 3, 1945 - May 28, 2025

Phyllis A. White (née Czaja), of Palmyra, NJ, passed away unexpectedly at her residence on Wednesday, May 28, 2025. She was 80 years old.

Born in Philadelphia, PA, to the late Theodore and Jean Czaja, Phyllis had been a devoted resident of Palmyra since 1966. She was predeceased by her beloved sister, Helene (Bill) Peters.

Phyllis was a loving mother to Lisa (Eric) Gross, Kelly (Marty) Leaf, and the late Charles "Kevin" White. She was the cherished Mommom of Molly L.

Gross, who brought her endless joy. Phyllis is survived by her loving sister-in-law Betty, whose kindness and support were a cherished part of her life, along with her children; Debbie and Denise. And also survived by her nieces and nephew; Michele, Mark, and Nicole and their children, Kyle, Kelsey, Colin, and Kylie.

Phyllis worked as a bookkeeper for Barlow Chevrolet in Delran, NJ, for over 45 years, where she was known for her dedication and reliability. A spirited Philadelphia sports fan, she especially loved cheering on the Eagles and the Phillies.

In her leisure time, Phyllis enjoyed trips to the casino, reading, visits to the shore, and connecting with friends and family on Facebook. She had a talent for crocheting baby blankets. Above all, Phyllis deeply loved her family and found her greatest happiness in their company.

Family and friends are invited to gather on Tuesday, June 3rd, from 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. at Givnish of Cinnaminson, 1200 Route 130 North. A funeral Mass will follow at 11:00 a.m. at Sacred Heart Church, 103 4th Street, Riverton, NJ. Phyllis will be laid to rest at Lakeview Memorial Park, Cinnaminson, NJ.

“ Dear Kelly and Lisa, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Cass Guzik

“ So sorry to hear this news. Mrs White was my moms neighbor of 23 years. She always was so pleasant. I enjoyed our conversations as I grew older, she spoke so proudly of her granddaughter. I still have the snowbaby ornament she gifted my daughter her first Christmas. I looked forward to her planting her beautiful red geraniums and changing her porch flag with the seasons. She will be missed on E Henry St.

“ Aunt Phyllis never missed a Christmas or birthday. You could always count on that. And as a special surprise, she always included a sprinkle of confetti. Over the years I have saved the confetti from all of her cards. I have all of the confetti in a special glass and I call it my Glass of Happiness.
