“ I met the gentleman, Ray When, at Christ Presbyterian Church in the Year of Our Lord, 2000! I was always taken back by his coy sense of humor. It was always on spot! I know that I also admired Ray's array or very colorful neckties and Hawaiian shirts!

We that knew this gentle giant will miss him. The Lord has gained a faithful servant in His Kingdom!

May the same Lord, Jesus Christ, take good care of Ray's most beloved wife and best friend, Edna. She, too, is a gem!

Frank S. Adams,

“ Ray was a gentle man who always had a smile. He loved to talk about his visits to Hawaii and share pictures of the beautiful island, He liked Phillie soft pretzels. I would bring him 3 in a bag when I sold pretzels for the hospitals. His presence will surely be missed.

My Heart felt Condolence to Edna and Family. Ray was a kind and funny person. He always made me feel good even if I was having a not so good day. We were. Four street down neighbours and became CPC family. Until we meet again. Petal

“ Raymond, a.k.a Tiger at Dialysis. I was honored to be one of the people who got to tend to him up to 3 times a week. We formed a great relationship. I look up to him as if he was my grandfather. He was such a kind sweet soul who always thought of sweet things to bring me. He loved his Hawaiian shirts. He gave me one a little while ago and I will always cherish it and smile when I see it. Just like the smile that would come across his face when he saw I was working with him for the day. You will be greatly missed by many Tiger, may you rest easy.
