

Richard Warren Marsdale

March 5, 1963 - October 7, 2021

Richard Warren Marsdale, 58, passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 7, 2021 with family and friends by his side. He was the devoted husband to Debra (DiPietro) and dedicated father to Jason (Natalie), Samuel, and Camille. Loving son of Warren and Patricia (Cleary) Marsdale, and younger brother to Robert “Bob” Marsdale. He was also survived by sisters-in-law Hope DiPietro Yonge, Fran DiPietro Hurton (Kevin), and Karen DiPietro. Rich was beloved “Uncle Dick” to many nieces and nephews. He was greeted in Heaven by his father, Warren Marsdale, mother-in-law, Camille Dellisola DiPietro, and brothers-in-law, Patrick DiPietro and Gerald DiPietro.

Rich was born on March 5, 1963 in Jersey City, NJ. His family moved to Willingboro, NJ when he was 6 years old. Upon graduating from Willingboro High School in 1981, Rich began an iconic career in sales. Referred to by a past colleague and friend as the “King of Sales,” Rich took pride in carefully guiding many through important life purchases. His career began in car sales and eventually progressed into mortgage sales. In all of his occupations, Rich was admired for his charisma and known for lighting up the workplace with his humor. Rich met his “Princess Bride”, Debbie, while selling her a car at DeSimone Cadillac in 1992. They married in 1996 and enjoyed just over 25 years of “Marital Bliss” in Mount Laurel, NJ, where they raised their family. Rich finished his career prematurely, following his diagnosis of Leukemia in 2014 while at Wells Fargo. He continued to practice as a natural salesman while working with his beloved wife at Showcase Graphics.

Over the last 7 years, Rich spent his time as a servant to others. Even throughout his difficult battle with cancer, he constantly found ways to provide those around him with assistance and enjoyed making the lives of others easier in any way he could. Rich prioritized his relationships with all who entered his life and made each member of his circle feel important. He was known to many as a prankster and had an undying sense of humor that brightened the lives of all who knew him. In his free time, Rich enjoyed cooking, cleaning, entertaining, and spending time with his family and friends. On any given day, you could find him enjoying an extended breakfast or lunch at a local diner with his Fante brothers, wandering around Costco for hours on end, detailing his car at the car wash, resting in his recliner in the company of his dog, Diamond, or chatting with a stranger.

The family of Rich would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to all those who positively impacted Rich's life throughout his battle with cancer. The Marsdale Family would like to especially thank Dr. Douglas Beach and the Penn Medicine Hematology/Oncology Team for their extraordinary care of Rich throughout his entire journey. They would also like to thank the Doctors and Nurses at the Samaritan Center at Voorhees for their gentle care in Rich's final days.

A memorial will be held Friday, October 15th, 2021 from 4 - 8 PM, at Givnish Funeral Home in Cinnaminson, NJ. A Mass will be held on Saturday, October 16th, 2021 at 10:30 AM at Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish in Moorestown, NJ.

In lieu of flowers, Rich would love to know that donations would be made in his honor to The Dane Fante Foundation at danefantefoundation.com. Having been lifelong friends with the Fante Family, Rich has been extremely passionate about supporting their mission.

Rich will be sorely missed by all who know and love him. To share your fondest memory of Rich please visit Givnish.com

“The family of Rich requests that anyone looking to attend his services who is not vaccinated against COVID-19 please wear a mask at all times.”

“ *My heartfelt sympathy Debbie to you, your children, family and friends. There are no words that can ease your sorrow. Rich was a wonderful man who brought so much joy laughter and love to all. He was a shining and true example of the word warrior as he handled his journey with so much faith and courage with his head held high. May he rest in the arms of our Lord and all of his heavenly angels

“ From the time Richie was a baby, he would make you laugh. His exuberance for life was a gift to all who knew him. His generosity was renowned. He gave of himself for his family, friends and even strangers. I was so blessed to spend many happy occasions with him. He lit up a room with his smile and personality. During the last few weeks I was nervous to call him but within a minute he was reassuring me and telling me how blessed he had been with his family. He had gotten to see two of his children finish high school and college. He had seen his oldest son get married. He had had 7 extra special years with his Princess. He had had a wonderful life. I told him that he was my Hero. Richie never complained or felt sorry for himself. He is the model we should all follow. A very kind, loving human being. We will all miss you Richie and we send our prayers and undying love to your whole family. Love, Diane Barrett Mozoski

“ We were so sad to learn of Richie’s passing. How fortunate we were to know him and his family. The times shared at his home were always memorable and those memories will help us all through this sad time. Since we now live in FL we won’t be able to share in his memorial service but will be there in spirit. We were glad to donate to the Dane Fante foundation in his name. Rest In Peace.

“ I never had the opportunity to meet Richard, but have had the pleasure of working with his Son Jason....They had a special bond, and there was always a time he would share a story about his dad.I would ask Jason, how is dad doing, and he was either in Florida or at the Beach....Lol I felt like I knew Richard...Everyday I inquired how he was doing and what treatment was going on...My Heart is broken for The Family...He was very loved and will be missed...I love you guys

“ Had an opportunity to work with and get to know Rich working as a d.j. and playing at various clubs in the area. He was a natural because of the ease of which he could befriend anyone who would come up and request a certain tune. An entertainer in his own right and his infectious smile would keep the party going and kept the people coming back for more! RIP and fly high my friend,you will be missed!

“ The physical world has lost an amazing person and the universe has gained a wonderful gift. To all of us left here without him, don't morn his loss, relish all the memories and cherish the time you had with him. Richie lived his life making all of us number one with plenty to go around. My heart greaves with his family, and my tears are from laughter just thinking of everything I had experienced knowing him.
