“ My father was an incredible man who raised the three of us, with the help of my Grandmom Alice, our nieghbors in garfield east, and several riverside school teachers aming others. We didnt have alot growing up, but we never went hungry and we were never left alone without an adult to care for us while dad was working or tending to other obligations. He drove us around in bad weather on our paper routes and drove us to the willingboro fire station near our home before we had our drivers license. He was an incredible father and role model. He will be sorely missed.
