“ Marc, When I read your mom's obituary my first thought was how lucky you were to have her for so long. I'm equally sure that you and your family think it wasn't long enough. It never is. She has left a legacy of people that will remember and love her for a long, long time. I know she was a wonderful mother just by the way you spoke of her. I hope you all can be comforted by your many happy memories of your life with her.
