“ Dear Ann Marie, Brian, Marcy, Lisa, and Michael:

My prayers are with you at this time. I have so many fond memories of Aunt Rita. She was so kind, caring, and loving. We had happy times at my children's wedding shower, wedding ,and baby shower. Also, our phone chats that we had for the holidays and notes in between. I will miss her kind words and laughter.

God Bless You All. Love You ALL.

With Love, Your Cousin, Beth Istak

“ I am George Gillespie a distant first cousin of Rita's . My Dad and Rita's Mom were brother and sister. As little kids the Riglers would come to my house and we would visit them on Fairhill St. As we grew older we grew far apart and aside some events haven't seen much of Rita over the years. I am saddened to learn of her passing and about the tough 2 years she has had prior. She was always very nice to me. I will keep all of you in my prayers and am sure Rita now rests with Our Lord in peace and love.

“ Dear Ann Marie, Brian, Marcy, Lisa and Michael,

We were so very sorry to learn of your dear Mother's passing. We know it has been a struggle for her these last two years. Take comfort in knowing she rests peacefully now in the loving arms of Our Lord. You are all to be commended for the devoted care and compassionate support you gave your Mom. There are three things that I recall fondly about Rita: she was always a gracious hostess; her love and devotion to Our Blessed Mother; and her warm and engaging smile. Be assured of our prayers at this difficult time.

Love,

John, Maryann and Fran Gillespie

“ To my cousins: Aunt Rita is one of the sweetest, loving and most compassionate Lady that I have ever known. I was fortunate to have her not only as my Aunt but my Godmother. When I would see Aunt Rita her smile would just warm my heart, she would always ask how you and your family were and have a lovely conversation, then I would have to let the next person greet her, always one of the VanOsten girls. Aunt Rita will be in our hearts and memories forever especially her sister, my Mother, Theresa M. VanOsten. May God Bless all of the Miller Family Love, Marybeth VanOsten Madden

Thank you Marybeth - you are a sweetheart and our mother loved all of you as well. I'm so happy we have the memories that we share of good times spent together...both in Philadelphia and in Sea Isle. The Miller Family

The Miller Family, my Cousins

Memories--some old, some not so old, some recent. Rita's passing into eternal life brought many personal reminiscences. There were Rita's overnight visits to my home when we were youngsters, but overnight never happened. She would cry and call her Dad to come get her for she couldn't be away from her family to sleep. This wasn't the only occasion.

There were the happy times at 37th & Pleasure in Sea Isle City. Her enthusiasm for California; her marriage to Sam--a beautifully glowing bride; their offspring who meant so much to them and for whom they worried and loved; her love of Aunt Mary; her devotion to Sam during the years of his illness; the glee and pride for her grandchildren; her devotion to prayer as her adult children experienced their trials of living and coping; her great interest in my trips abroad; the joy of family gatherings.

Rita accepted her physical problems and pain in these last two years and told me there were so many people who had worse problems. I treasure her kindness, her laugh, and her smiling face. Eternal rest, Rita.
