“ My fondest memory of my brother Bob was him demonstrating a hided talent he had. He had returned from basic training in the South and came home being able to yodel with the best of the country singers of his day. I could listen to his double yodel for hours. I am sorry to say that over the years, he stopped yodeling. Other responsibilities took precedent. Bob was a wonderful big brother, even when he caught be smoking the first time and pulled the cigarette from my lips. (ouch!!). When my Dad died, Bob stepped up to become the man of the house, helping to support my Mom and I. I know he is up in heaven dancing away with the rest of the dancers in my family that preceded him. Rest in peace my dear brother. Lil

“ "Mr. Iversen" as we always called him since we were the kids who lived over in the back as it was referred to years ago. In other words we were the neighbors who lived behind The Iversen's. I always loved talking to Mr. Iversen over the fence. My most special memory is him building a screened porch on my parent's house. My Dad helped, but it was Mr. Iversen who had the real talent for building. Thank you Bob for doing that! A lot of memories at your house and on my parent's porch.

So very happy John, Laurie and I were able to see you in May and share some old memories and a few laughs. I know you are having a few laughs now up in heaven with my parents. Sending our love and hugs to you, "Mrs. Iversen," Val and Meredith, Love, Rosemary, John and Laurie

“ Loved the man and his family as if they were my very own. I will truly miss him saying "Hey Rach!" - always a great greeting to receive. The Iversen home was always open to me and was welcoming and warm. Many great memories. Strength and love to my extended family.....xo xo. ~ Rachel (the "other daughter")
