“ Very sorry for your loss. Bob was among my friends on Conger Ave way back in the day. I found this obituary totally by accident. My family lived a few doors from your family in the 60s and early 70s. Peace.

“ I am very sorry to hear of Bob's passing, known him since he was a baby in the neighborhood and watched him grow up to become a man and a proud Army Ranger. He served his country with pride. He later became a successful business man. He was a proud father who loved his family.

Rest in peace Bob, be with your brother Tommy and your mom.

My thoughts and prayers to Lynda and Ray and his family My prayers that the lord welcomes you to his kingdom.

“ I remember Bob as a young kid growing up in Collingswood. He always liked playing some kind of sports. He was a good kid.

And to you Bob, I'll never forgot when you told me three years ago, how much you missed the days of playing street hockey at Tatum Schoolyard and how much you would of loved for all of us old kids to get together and have one more game. God Bless you buddy!
