“ We relied on your wisdom and help so many times over the last 40 years. From emergencies when we were away to everyday practical problems. It gave us comfort to know there was some caring person available. We will miss the comfort of having him nearby.

“ I was very saddened to learn of Bob's passing. I had the pleasure working with Bob prior to his retirement for many years. We was a mentor, co-worker, and friend; always ready to patiently explain work related problems and field my many questions. Even after Bob retired, we kept in touch frequently via email. I will miss his near weekly emails with jokes or interesting tidbits of current events. A great guy who'll be missed!

“ Well Dad, today is the day that we'll say our last formal goodbye. We'll gather at the church and try and find some measure of comfort and solace that after a long journey here on earth you've earned you place in heaven at the right hand of God. Your selfless sacrifice to us while we were growing is something I'll always remember and be eternally grateful for. I only regret that I never told you nearly enough while I had the chance.

Until we meet again gentle soul may God bless and keep you.

Your loving son.

Robert grew up in Fayetteville, w.v. His parents were good friends of my mom and dad dad had a drug store and Mr. Haynes office was next door. My mom and Mrs. Haynes were thebest of friends. Ann and my sister Margaret Evans were together all the time growing up. I spent many days at the Haynes house where of course saw robertwho always very good to me. My fondest memory of him was in1957! We both were in summer school at WVU. On July 31th I was married 56 years ago. Robert came. To my wedding which meant a lot to me cause very few from home were there. He was a wonderful person and send my sympathy to each of you. Love mary virginia Wiseman Lewis.

“ As a former board member of Tri-State Jazz Society, I came to know Bob and his wife Nancy who joined our organization a few years ago . I was saddened to learn of Bob's sudden passing. Although I knew Bob a relatively short period I knew him as a person who defined the word "gentleman" " with the emphasis on "gentle" With his wife Nancy Bob was a regular attendee of our monthly traditional jazz concerts and assisted us in obtaining the use of their home church , Cinnaminson Presbyterian, for presentation of traditional (Dixieland, Swing) jazz concerts for our more than 300 members and the general public. Bob will be greatly missed as a friend and supporter and I send my deepest sympathy to Nancy and family for their loss.

“ Robert W. Haynes was my dad. I miss him so much now, and he has been gone only five days as I write this here. My father was somebody who I could depend upon 100% over the entire course of my own life, all the way up until the final two weeks of his own life, and that was only because of the circumstances at that time. I learned many valuable lessons from my dad over all of these years. Thanks for being there for me, dad.

Robert was a year ahead of me in high school and was my boyhood friend and mentor. He knew all about everything - bike repairs, model plane engines, rifles and marksmanship, radios, etc.. He did well playing left end on the high school football team. Soft-spoken, he shared anything he had with others, and we even managed to be together in a minor car accident one night which was not his fault. For the moment we have lost a good man. "May light eternal shine upon him!"
