“ I still cannot believe the sad news. So sorry for the loss of a really great man. He was always willing to help someone in need. He was a blessing who entered my life and always tried to make my life easier as I was going through my divorce. He Had a heart of gold and always spoke well of his family. I will miss our chats when he would come over to help me out. Thank you Bob for your help and true friendship. May you Rest In Peace and continue to shine as the star you always were!
