“ Sincere sympathy to Rosalie’s family and to her sister Teresa. Fond memories of her visit to Ireland with her mother Mary for a family reunion. She stayed in our home for a few days during her trip. May she now rest peacefully in perpetual peace and happiness. Breda OReilly /Rudden. Fermanagh and Cavan.

“ My fiancée and I moved in summer of 2019 prior to the pandemic and had a chance to have Rose over to our house. We knew instantly how warm and welcoming she was. We stopped over for her birthday and had the great pleasure of meeting a lot of the family and we were met with the same knowing that these were good people. Our hearts, thoughts and prayers of comfort and strength go out to everyone affected by her passing.

My love, prayers and condolences to the family of Ms Rose. I had the opportunity of talking with her at least once a week when working with her daughter Donna. Ms Rose was always warm and kind hearted. Sending cookies whenever she baked knowing that I enjoyed her cookies. Her warmth and kindness will be missed, just what we need in the world today. Thanks Donna for sharing your Mother. 🙏🙏🙏
