

Rosalie A. Hieronimus

October 24, 1935 - October 22, 2019

Rosalie A. Hieronimus (nee Henry) passed away unexpectedly on October 22, 2019.

Born in Philadelphia, Rosalie was 83 years old. She was a resident of Cinnaminson since 1966.

Beloved wife of 40 years to the late Philip Hieronimus.

Loving mother Rosalie (Jeff) Gross, Philip (Alesia), Marie (Craig) McHugh, Louis and Anne (Daniel) Joyce.

Cherished grandmother to Jillian (Christopher), Kelly, Melanie, Sarah, Brendan, Megan, Faith, Shane, Grace, Marah, Madeleine, Matthew and Ella.

Loving sister of Eleanor McCurley, the late Sr. Marita William and the late William Henry.

Also survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Rosalie was an active member of St. Charles Borromeo Church community, and involved with the Bereavement Committee for many years.

She enjoyed the beach, reading, watching tennis (while talking with her sister on the phone), and especially spending time with her children and grandchildren.

A gathering of family and friends will be held Sunday Eve 7-9 p.m. at St. Charles Borromeo Church Branch Pike and Pomona Road Cinnaminson, NJ.

Her Funeral Mass will be held Monday 10:30 a.m. at Church.

Entombment will take place at Lakeview Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The National MS

Society nationalmssociety.org/goto/rosaliehieronimus or to Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Cardiac Center.

“ Marie, I met you many many years ago at Cooper, before Craig came about and before your beautiful girls arrived. I always enjoyed your sense of humor and your strong spirit. Having met your parents on a couple of occasions it was easy to see where you got, not only your sense of humor and spirit from, but your strong family values (and your height.)

Your Mom raised a beautiful, strong, independent daughter, one that became a wonderful wife & Mom herself. I am grateful to have met you and your Mom. I wish you and your family a joyful path in the celebration of Rosalie's life, and find peace knowing she is now with Phil. 🍀❤️
