Dear Cousins: Although we cannot attend the Memorial Mass for Aunt Rose we are sending our sympathy and prayers as you face the difficult days ahead. How saddened we were to hear of her passing... the last of a generation of beloved women. Words cannot erase your heartache but those who care and share in your loss wish you comfort and peace. I have so many fond memories of my Aunt Rose and Uncle Sam. Having all grown up together, I don't think there was any family as together as ours. I remember how happy and kind they were with me and my brother Jeff. Our lives have been enriched and blessed with their legacy of love of family, which left an indelible imprint in our memories: the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter, the family gatherings, the picnics, the holidays, the mothers playing cards as we played; and those memories will never be forgotten. God bless you all. With love and affection, Jacqueline and John
