

Rosemary T. Bechtloff

January 4, 1930 - July 3, 2020

Rosemary Theresa Bechtloff (nee Ochs), age 90, died peacefully at home on Friday, July 3, 2020. She was born on January 4, 1930 in Germantown, Philadelphia to John and Helen (Nee Deihl) Ochs. She graduated from Little Flower High School and St. Joseph's nursing school in Philadelphia. She started her nursing career caring for Polio victims in Indiana. She then worked in hospitals in Philadelphia, Miami, and Camden, as well as running the treatment room at Connie Mac Stadium in the late 1950s. She met and married the love of her life while traveling as a hospital educator for the Brewer Pharmaceutical Company. She retired from nursing in 1966 to start a new career as a loving wife and mother.

A devout Catholic all her life, she had a special devotion to Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her beloved husband, Kenneth Ellsworth Bechtloff; her sisters Helen Flynn and Sister Elizabeth Ochs, SSJ., and her brothers John and Francis.

She is survived by her son, John Bechtloff of Mount Laurel; daughter Elizabeth Casperite of Delran; granddaughters Jenna Casperite and Kimberly Casperite; many nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends are invited to a viewing on Wednesday, July 8th, from 10:30 am to 11:30 am, at Givnish of Cinnaminson, 1200 Route 130 North.

Masks are required to enter the building, and social distancing will be in effect.

We ask visitors to pay their respects and promptly leave the building to give others an opportunity to enter. Her prayer service will begin at 11:30 am, followed by interment in Princeton Memorial Park, Robbinsville, NJ.
