“ I worked with Rosemary at Zurbrugg Hospital for years. She was a warm, loving, fun person to work with but also to each and every patient she took care of. There was not a day that went by where she didn't make us laugh or giggle. I would also run into her at Shop Rite or the hairdressers and get a warm welcome each time or a "how is so in so?" Always in the loop. She was a lucky person to live thru all her medical disasters, but the Lord had a plan for her and she stuck to it. May she Rest in Peace Forever...and has left a "forever" place in my heart. Sincerely, Sandy Iwanicki
