“ As shown in her obituary picture, Rosemary was a very lovely lady who radiated peace. She always reminded me that we went on the first March for Life in 1974 together with St. Charles Borromeo Parish in Cinnaminson. We also made numerous telephone calls one summer to help set up the schedule for the new Eucharistic Adoration Chapel at St. Charles where Rosemary & Bill were faithful adorers. I extend my sympathy and prayers to the Martens family.

Rosemary's lovely smile was always a welcome treat to the volunteers at Calvary's Trift Shop. She was so bubbly and happy, she made everyone in the shop feel the same. She will be missed by the volunteers at the shop.
