“ Cyndi and family - I was shocked to hear the passing of Russ on Wednesday. He was a great person always putting his best foot forward. Was an asset to the Maple Shade First Aid Squad and his community devoting huge amount of hours running calls and helping those in need and providing support to others. Gone well before his time, Russ May God rest your Soul. Cyndi and family may God look over you at this sorrowful time. God Bless you. Phil Wien

*Cyndi, I was shocked when I hear the news of Russell passing. He was a benefit to all us by being a good friend and servicing the community by the many hours he volunteered to the community by servicing on the Maple Shade First Aid Squad. he will be truly missed by you, your daughter and the all of the members of the squad.. RIP Russel!!

Russ was an amazing man. he was an am amazing father and had the most beautiful daughter, Baylee, i grew up with Baylee and know how distraught she has been the past year. she plans on getting married next year and is extremely devastated that he will not be there to walk her down the isle or to give her away. she talks about him constantly. she loved her dad very much and always will. i know about all of the rough family issues baylee had with her family. i wish her step mother, cindy, love and the best. and they are all in my prayers

I'm so sorry to have just learned about Russ's passing, he was a great man and incredible instructor, he was my EMT instructor in 1996 and his lessons helped guide me into later becoming a paramedic. Rest In Peace
