“ *Dear Cindy,
I saw your mother's death notice in the local newspaper and I just let you know that I enjoyed my time with your mother but she is a better place now. I know the last few times I saw her I could the difference in her. My prayers and sympathies go out to you and your family.
Sincerely

“ To the Family of Phyllis and for so many wonderful childhood memories.

With sincere sadness I thank her for being our friend in the past and provider of such tender care of my Mother Mary as she too prepared to leave this world.

Always calming, she never seemed to become very upset regardless of the situation and was always a voice of reason.

To Dave & Cindy, I hope the memories can be lasting and any time spent cherished by all.

May the years to come be filled with the thought that she is with you.

My sincere condolences.
