“ I met Scott last year when he was hospitalized. I asks him if he was related to Marc Polis. I graduated with him. He told no I'm not. Well that's ok you see where I grew up we took care of are own. Meaning if u live or went to school with me I took care of you like your family. So I told him today is your lucky day you had the right last name so for now on I'm taking care of you and that s that. He laughed! So everytime I saw it was like I'm back. Towards the end he would call me Donna but I would still answer him anyway. He would laugh cause he could hear me coming a mile away and feel ok cause no matter what he needed he knew that I would get it for him like chocolate shakes or that nasty ensure stuff he would drink. I always doctored it to taste better! Thank you for letting me be a part of your life. Even though I didn't know you long . U made an impression on me ! Heaven Got a beautiful Angel! And your at peace my friend!! Your Angel from Lourdes!!

“ I knew Scott since he was four years old. He didn't have an easy life but was always trying to live his life independently and overcome obstacles. He loved his family. May his memory be a blessing. Alice

“ Scott was a sweet and loving person, from the time he was a little boy. There's really no fairness in his passing. He never meant harm to anyone, and he will be missed. -- with love for the family, Cousin Phyllis
