“ My fondest childhood memories were formed by my friendship with Scott. Almost everyday after leaving Joyce Kilmer elementary school, we played outside until it became dark. When we attended different middle schools, our lives took us in separate directions. It is possible to touch another's life in the beginning of one's life, as Scott did mine. May his memory be for a blessing.

“ *All of us at Corporate Interiors admired and appreciated Scott's guidance and assistance through this "journey" of the furniture world....his shared understanding and sensibility helped us build a successful business. He was our better known and loved representatives. His smile was contagious and his presences was always known by the chatter and excitement that surrounded him on his visits. I had the pleasure of getting to know Scott thru AOE. I will miss hearing his voice saying Hey Krys as he came over to discuss the furniture projects we were working on. Our conversations always turned to travel. He was so excited when he took the river cruise. I miss Scott. Even with everything he was dealing with he took the time to ask about my family. My heartfelt sympathy to his family. May you find peace in your memories with Scott and know how much he touched peoples's lives. Rest In Peace, Krystyna and Matthew Poster

“ My prayers and deepest sympathies to Scott’s family. I went to school with Scott, who was Ports to us at Phi Sig. He was always a class act, a friend and bother, and as every picture I see always, always had that big smile. It is what I remember most about him. I pray the memories sustain you, and I have no doubt that his spirit will live on.
