“ To the dear McSweeney Family -- I have known for over 40 years - and my heart aches learning of Sean's death. Too young to be gone so soon. I didn't get to know Sean as an adult - but reading all of the comments he was one of a kind and a very special and loved individual. Know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless all of you.

“ *To our friend "Mac" or as I called him L.B., You were one of our best friends ever. We will cherish all of the wonderful memories that we have made with you and Barbie and the rest of your family. I personally will miss our talks on the porch of the old days when I lived 2 doors down and the best years of our lives. We could always count on you for anything, no matter what it was, for you are what we called a "true blue" friend. Our family will miss you dearly, and I especially will miss that amazing smile. “ *Son: Most cherished by Doris and Terry Sr. A happy-go lucky kid who was bold and quick whitted. His Mother's Rock later in life when she needed him most.
Brother: Terry, Charlie, Eileen and Kevin were always on their toes with the little whipersnaper. His love and devotion to family was always paramount; we'll miss him greatly
Husband: and confidant to Barbara. Always provided and was there to care for his loving wife, his love for you is everlasting.
Father: Tony, Samatha and Sean Joseph, always know how proud he was of you and that you brought him much pride and joy
Pop Pop: Riley, Hailee, Mikie and JJ, he will always be your Pop Pop; please know that he loved and cared for you deeply. He wants you to be like him as you grow. Love a lot, especially your family and to be there for each other.
Friends: There probably isn't much he wouldn't do for you, all he ever wanted was your love, friendship and to enjoy the good times together. Remember those times that were shared.*

I'll miss you Little Brother, Love Kevin
