July 28, 1947 - March 30, 2024

Sharon West (nee Carey), of Delanco, formerly of Maple Shade, passed away on March 30th, 2024. She was 76 years old. Sharon was born in Camden on July 28th, 1947 to the late Robert Carey and the late Florence Carey (nee Groff). Devoted wife to the late Elbert A. West. Loving mother to Kimberly Scavello (Peter), Christopher West (Denise), and Amber Sciliano (Franco). Beloved grandmother to Sophia, Mason, Carly, Cole, Scarlett, and Salvatore. Cherished sister to the late Ruthanne, Carol, Jackie, and Bobby.

Sharon grew up on Sunset Ave. in Maple Shade, and made her home with her own family on Linwood Ave. of Maple Shade.

She loved the Lord and spending time with her family more than anything in the world! Sharon was a friend to everyone she had ever met. Such a sweet person that everyone either got handshake or hug from her but mostly a hug. She loved children so much that she dedicated her life to them by running a daycare for 40 years. She loved the sun/ shore/beach, being outside, Sunsets, entertaining and being by the water.

I will forever be grateful for “Ms. Sharon” and all Of the love and support she offered me and my oldest son Romeo. As a single mom it took a village... and that’s exactly what Sharon was a part of, my village. She was the sweetest, kindest most trustworthy person. She left a tremendous imprint on not only mine but my son’s heart. She had such an impact on the community and helped raise so many generations of kids. Loved by so many! May you rest peacefully. My thoughts are with her family.
