“ I praise God for how you and Shawn poured into our son Vincenzo through the Boy Scouts. He showed the boys a lot of love and taught them valuable life skills. I also remember fondly how Shawn volunteered his time to be Charlie Brown in our Open Hands Health Center dinner fundraiser. He was a great man, lots of fun and we are blessed that God chose to bring him into our lives. Praying for you Rhonda and for the boys. May God be comforting your hearts now through this most difficult time. ❤️🙏

“ Shawn you are truly missed, I remember you coming up to me at SJ transportation and telling me you saw on Facebook that I was from spotswood and that you were too and as we laughed about that you asked if I was any relation to Jean Wilson and that you and her were on the first aid squad together years ago and as I told you she is my younger sister I found out you knew my whole family, that was our first of many great conversations and interactions and to top it all off you like me are a Marine Corps veteran and made knowing you even more better. I will never forget you “ friend & brother! Semper Fi
