“ Uncle Steve was Great Man. A great example for us young ones at the time I knew him. Loved the Scouts, loved to cook on the Sundays we came to visit with family. Fondest memory was his cassette tape collection of something funny like Abbot and Costello recordings from the radio. Or bringing my cousins old bike, that I desperately wanted for my Birthday

“ Steve as a friend and brother scout. He Juan Garcia and I were Vigil Brothers in the Scouting Orgination's Order of the Arrow. The three of us spent our Vigil on the same night. God's speed brother.

“ Mr. Kakas was an Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 11 in Maple Shade, when I joined the Troop from Cub Scouts. Not long thereafter he became our Scoutmaster. He devoted himself to our growth as Scouts and young men. The role he played in developing the character and lives of countless Scouts is immeasurable. Practical, a teacher, and a prankster. Sincere condolences to his family. May he R.I.P.

Steve Kakas reminded me of my father with his sense of humor and wit. Steve only met me when I was a few years old back long before I knew anything about family. After losing my father I was able to chat with Steve or write back and fourth on social media. I felt like my dad, (Dennis) was talking to me thru him. Steve will be missed dearly by all that knew him. Thank you for taken the time to talk and write Steve. Love Phillip
