“ Stevie Stevie. You were my childhood partner in crime, adventures, and discoveries. We learned a lot about the world and life together. You taught me what it was like to have someone that always had my best interest at heart. You were always there for me and even better, I always knew where to go if I was wanting positivity or a good laugh. I loved our conversations every day on the ride to school and getting permission to get off at your bus stop so we could hang out anytime after school haha. It's been some years since I've been able to connect with you physically but you are a major player in a lot of my memories in New Jersey. I'm blessed to have those memories and to have been able to call you a friend. Rest in peace and watch over us all, our Angel.

“ Sean's first friend he brought home from school I think in 4th grade, have been friends ever since, they went through being best friends, drifted for a while and always reconnected. Yesterday Steve passed way at the age of 22. I will always remember him as a sweet kid and Sean's friend, you will be missed. Life is so short, you never know when someone you love will no longer be here. RIP Steve, heartbroken with your family and friends.

“ So many heart-filled things to say about STEVE but I think what sums up a good part of it was knowing that whenever my son Jimmy was hanging with him, I never had to be wary. They were drawn together to wholesome energetic boyhood fun and never let it go, right to the their final days together last week in snowy Vermont. Steve had a genuine and caring soul and was like a member of our family, looking out for Jimmy's little sisters, pitching in to bring in my groceries and always helping himself to whatever I had simmering in the crockpot. I am overwhelmed with the empty spot now left in my heart and in out lives. He was a great friend, employee and all-around person. God bless Linda and Steve and the whole family. Love to all always.
