“ I met Steve when I was over my cousin 's Jamie , (Bolado house )house, then again when a few of us used to hang out back in the day , Steve always would say hi or what's up with a smile on his face, Steve was in town last summer and I had the opportunity to chat with him , he still had that big smile and said hi Di, what's up ? We talked about things back in the day and I told him there are some things that bothered me about then , his response was Diane don't let people bring you down you are better than that , of they can't see that then that's there problem , that chat really met a lot to me , Same old Steve always helping someone and giving advice , I thank you my friend for always being there and being you ,He had the biggest smile and heart , I will diffently miss you my friend ,

“ Just a small memory for Steve's children and the rest of the family: I have a dog walking service and often walked Jack, a wonderful German Shepherd who came here to the Grand Cherry Hill as a puppy. Whenever we would see Steve on a walk Jack would wag his tail so hard his butt would swing back and forth and he'd stumble. He loved Steve so much. Then he'd launch himself forward--Steve would laugh and pet him and get face kisses. Jack did this outside on the sidewalk, in the elevators, and in the hallways--anywhere we saw Steve. It's a fine measure of a man to be loved so much, not only by his family, friends, and people he met, but also by a dog who can only judge people based on their kindness.

“ All of my sympathy to the family for this great loss. Steve was a bright light here at the Grand Cherry Hill where he worked. I saw him often and was always cheered by his smile and personality. He was my favorite person on staff--always helpful and excellent at his job. Please know that Steve touched many lives and that we all benefited from his presence. I join you in your sadness.

“ Steve loved golf. The first time I found out he liked golf, they lived in Texas...he took Olivia and she just lit up to go with him...she loved golfing with her Daddy.
I remember singing as a family with Steve in church when they lived in Medford,....we had a lot of fun practicing together. I loved my son-in-law a lot! I tried to be an encouragement to him over the last few years, always assuring him of my love for him as he struggled through life. I loved when he called and I heard his voice, "Momma May...this is Steve" then I knew something was on his heart or he needed help, but I'm glad he always knew I'd be there for him and that I loved him.

“ Laning Family,
I'm so sorry for your loss. My heart, thoughts & prayers are with you during this tragic time. Steve was my BFF, my Angel when we were kids/teens...him with his skateboard & me with my bmx bike. He even worked for my parents plumbing company for some time & my dad loved him! My father was pretty strict with me, but not when Steve & I were together because my dad knew I was safe. Steve protected, respected & loved me like a sister and the feeling was mutual. Steve will never be forgotten.

My Deepest Sympathy,
Jamie 'Jay' Bolado

To Steve: May you be at peace my friend from whatever weighed heavy in your heart & soul. You will Truly be forever missed, always loved & a place forever in my heart!
