

Sunday Ann Mary Scappaticci

May 14, 1947 - January 27, 2023

Sunday Ann Mary Scappaticci (nee Angelastro), 75, of Blackwood, NJ, passed away suddenly on January 27, 2023. Devoted wife of 18 years to the late Dr. John P. Scappaticci Jr., who just went home to the Lord in August. Beloved mother of Noelle Patel (Ajay) and Michael Panichella. Loving Nonna to Adino Patel. Dear sister of Joseph Angelastro. Dog mommy to Molly. Daughter of the late James and Lena (nee Giampietro) Angelastro.

Sunday worked at Cooper Hospital, then the rectory of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, and then at Mt. Holly Family Practice (now Virtua Primary Care in Lumberton). While working in Medical Records she went to night school, becoming a Medical Assistant after earning her license as a phlebotomist. She worked alongside John, who eventually became her husband.

Sunday enjoyed poker, the beach, running, cooking, Bloody Marys, watching the Eagles, walking her dog, and spoiling her only grandson with Hot Wheels cars and Munchkin donut holes. She was well-known for her quirky sense of humor, raucous laughter, dance moves, Eagles fandom, homemade gravy, animal sweaters, patchouli perfume, always doing the right thing, and for her beautiful giving heart.

Her absence will be felt by her many loving cousins, dear friends, former coworkers, neighbors, and acquired family, as well as employees at her local Shoprite, Rite-Aid, Dunkin' Donuts, Veterinarian office, and dog groomer.

A gathering of friends and family will be held on Thursday, February 2nd at Givnish of Maple Shade, 600 East Main Street, from 9 am to 10:30 am. Her Funeral Mass will begin at 11 am at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Maple Shade. Burial will take place at Calvary Cemetery in Cherry Hill. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to the American Heart Association, www.heart.org

“ *Mt thoughts and prayers to those who called Sunday Mom, Sister, Aunt, Cousin. ❤️
I called Sun my forever friend.
We battled some demons together here on earth.
I look forward to sharing nothing but Joy with her in the next life...
When we meet again... ❤️*

“ Sunday and John were our Stonegate neighbors. What a great addition they were to the community!! We would see John and Sunday at 4:30 Mass on Saturdays. After John’s passing, Sunday would be accompanied by her brother, Joe at the Saturday Mass. We would blow kisses to each other across the aisle during the exchange of peace. My last hug with Sunday was in the gathering space of St. Agnes Church approximately 3 weeks ago. She will be missed but we realize God’s Master Plan took precedence. We firmly believe Sunday died of a broken heart. 💔 May Sunday rest in peace with the Lord along with the love of her life, her husband John. We will continue to pray for Sunday’s soul and for the family to have a peaceful healing!

Fondly,

“ Noelle,
Your Mom was truly amazing. I loved working with her and doing life for 11 years. The world will be a harder place because her sweet, kind, laughter will no longer be with us. My deepest sympathy and love to you and your family. We were all blessed to have shared the trip around the sun with her. Ever On Sunday. Lois D.

“ My sister Sunday Ann - alias Slab / Slabber as our Uncle Mike and Cousin Anthony would call her would say - “
I love you to the moon and back”
Now I can say - I love you to the Heavens and back
The last five months we spent together every day will be in my heart and mind forever - Sunday's love was unconditional - she loved me and others who they were- her love had no judgements-
We laughed - we cried.. we hugged each other every morning when we got up and night before bed
As she would say at dinner prayer -Give John a kiss..
Now Lord give Sunday Ann - good ol Slab a kiss
Until we meet again- love you- your Bro

What a loving tribute to Sunday. We had many many fun times at dinners, barbeques at my mom's, get together and such. Too bad we didn't have many for a long time but will always remember the ones we did share and missing two cousins now. So sad.
