“ We were in school together. (High) I can remember walking into the Bathroom to escape and put my makeup on because my mother was a pain. I saw Susan and thought to myself she was very attracted with dark hair and a smile. Many Many years ago I spoke to her and told her. I'm so sorry for your loss RIP Susan

“ *To Susan's Family and Friends~
We only "met" online through a Facebook group, but her joie de vivre came through in all her posts ~ including her lovely smile, even from her hospital bed.
I'm so very sorry about her unexpected illness and passing, and your loss.
May Susan's memory ever serve as a blessing.
May her dear ones find comfort among the many who care.*

“ My heart goes out to her family whom she loved dearly. While I met her on Long Island, I really enjoyed her visits to Florida over the past few years. She even acted on my behalf as a matchmaker for me a couple years ago. While that relationship didn't last, sue's and my friendship did. She is an important part of my womens community experience, first in long island and continuing over the years in Florida. Rest in power sister-

“ My Dearest Susan,

Where do I start? You have left an indellible mark on my soul...I hope you know that. Thank you my darling Susan for scooping me up many years ago -- caring for me and loving me--rescuing this little bird that fell from her nest. I will never forget your wisdom, your sweetness, your compassion and generous heart, your abundant kindness and your love for your family. Kaydi, Claudia, and Alex were your world. Your love for them was fierce, just as it is now for your MJ, Bella, Declan and Dalton. Your devotion to Joy was limitless. Your beauty and sweetness lives on in all of us. This is what I will remember, my friend. You live in me and all who's life you have touched--and Susan, there are so, so many of us who now honor your life. I will never forget you. You will live forever in my heart.
Yours, Kathy

“ Sue, I loved you and will miss you. I'm glad your illness was relatively fast and that you didn't linger on. I remember how much fun you had with Kaydi, Claudia and Alex when they were little. No one I know was better with kids. I remember how close you were with Joy. I remember how you looked after Cora. I remember everything. How can it be that someone with your energy is struck down like that?

“ Sue, I loved your passion for what you believed in. I loved the way you could tell a story, especially those about Woodstock and those you wrote about your family, especially your mom. Your two trips to Phoenix will always bring a smile to my face. Thank you for sharing the pictures of your grand kids. I could “feel” how much you loved them. Rest In Peace Sue, you will be missed!

“ Losing Susan is surely a great loss to her family and friends. She was a very spirited woman and it's so sad that she's gone. She still had so much to offer. R.I.P. friend.
