“ This is likely quite odd to do over year after my Mom's passing. I wrote my wonderful Mother's obituary, and recently I've become very upset and angry at myself that I did not speak enough to who my Mother was as a person within this obituary. I spoke of her accomplishments in education and career, and briefly touched on the fact that she was the most magnificent Mother anyone could wish for, but I did not speak to the genuine uniqueness and goodness which truly encompassed and defined her. With that said, as unorthodox as it very well may be, here is the one line I wish so much I had included in this writing;

Suzanne loved life; she laughed constantly, cared genuinely, and gave always - in any and every way she was able to.

“ We were up in the nosebleeds at the Philadelphia Spectrum singing along, LOUDLY, with The Beach Boys who were playing down on the stage.

The Beach Boys: “my little deuce coupe”

Suzanne: “my little loose tooth”

Still cracks me up when I think about it.

Gary, Nolan and Helene, wishing you all a little bit of peace.

“ Suzanne had the most infectious laugh and could always make me smile. I still can see her red hair glowing in the sun. Can't believe that she too is gone. However the gates of heaven have opened to the celebration where Kathy meets her with a cup of coffee. Much love and deepest sympathy to Gary, Nolan And Helene. I am so sorry for this great loss.

“ Years ago about 1977 I was at a conference in AC. We went out the back of the hotel for some fresh air. Half way down the block I saw some people getting out of a car. I noticed this huge wave of red hair blowing in the wind.

The persons back was to me. I yelled “SUE HORN!!!” From a half block away she started running my way and laughing hysterically yelling HOW DID YOU KNOW IT WAS ME??? A giant full floppy hug and the conference was history. We hit the slots for the night. Both Sue and Kathy were my friends all those years ago. Lovely, fun, loving women. My sincerest sorrow for your loss. My heart breaks for us all.

“ Gary, Nolan, and Helene - I'm so sorry to hear of your loss, and on the heels of Kathy's passing last July, it's hard to even comprehend. Please accept my heartfelt condolences, and know that I will be forever grateful for the love and kindness which Suzanne and the Blau family extended to my family and I over the last 40 years. May God Bless and comfort you, and ease your burden in this time of unfathomable sorrow.

“ I am so sorry Gary, Nolan and Helene for your tremendous loss. I will always remember you Mom laughing which when I saw her she did frequently. I knew you Mom since she was ten years old from Stone Harbor. I marveled at how she got along with her sister Kathy, my friend. Of course they did fight like all sisters do but they would make up and become so important in each other lives. I don't know how consoling it is but you know she is at peace now and with her Mom, Dad and Kathy. Take care of each other and know many friends and family are grieving with you and sending good thoughts and prayers your way.

“ She was the coolest older cousin! She take us out on the boat into the ocean, which wasn't allow. She'd let you hang out in her room and smoke, which wasn't allow! She'd loves us and we really were a pain, but she say " Listen to this album, what do you think?" She made me feel like your ok! Our family will miss her dearly! Prayers for Gary, Nolan and Helene.
