

Tamara Danyluk

March 8, 1929 - August 7, 2015

Danyluk

Tamara Danyluk age 86, fell asleep in the Lord on August 7, 2015 in her home of Palm Beach Gardens, Fl. She was surrounded by her loving family who will miss her dearly. She is survived by her children Walter of Virginia Beach, VA, Mary of Palm Beach Gardens, Fl and Alexander of Plymouth Meeting, PA.

She unceasingly dedicated her life to her family and friends and her kindness was outstanding. Humble and modest she was a dedicated mother, excellent cook, and a gracious hostess who was always ready with a welcoming smile and hug.

The number of lives she has touched and her devotion to her Orthodox Christian faith is a testament to her kind loving heart. She was active in Orthodox Christian fellowship, and spent much of her free time dedicated to the sisterhood support of her member orthodox churches both in Phila. and Florida for over 50 years. During the first part of her working life Tamara became a legendary figure in the fashion and dressmaking designer apparel field for over 35 years in Philadelphia, PA.

Friends are invited to the visitation 9:00 AM Thursday, August 13 at St. Stephens Orthodox Cathedral on 8598 Verree Road in Phila. Funeral service will follow at 9:30 AM. Interment will follow the funeral at St. Vladimir's Cemetery in Jackson, New Jersey.

“ The first time we met was when she prepared dinner for 7 of us (co-workers of son Walter) at his house in VA Beach, and I've loved her dearly from that moment on. She greeted me with the most loving and warmest hug that I can still feel today. The sweetest lady, the most gracious hostess and the best cook that ever walked the earth. I will forever remember our walks around Walt's neighborhood and the many warm, inspirational talks we had, always so encouraging. I feel so blessed to have known her and even more blessed that she allowed me to call her my "Mama D".

My prayers are with you Walt, Mary & Alex.
