Wayne was a very nice, caring and generous man. I've seen him do some very nice things for people. He was a customer in my store. He will be missed by many

“ Dad, I still can't wrap my head around this. It's baseball season and it doesn't feel right without you. God must have really wanted you in heaven because if you held on for one more week or two things would've been different. I'm glad we made amends and I'm happy that you showed me everything about your family so I would keep send memory of our family growing. Love Lisa face. PS the balls of my feet are just fine. I know you would like to know LOL

Today was Thanksgiving and thinking of you was very hard. You filled a void in my heart after grieving so many years for my loss there was you. I will always remember your last phone call but I still need more answers. You should still be here with those who loved you. You are loved and missed but too short memories can never be forgotten.

“ I have known Wayne for almost 20 years when he was the electrician on my home remodel. My kids, who were toddlers at the time, would call him “Funny Mr. Wayne”. He had a kind and caring soul and would just want to make sure you were OK instead of talking about himself. Although he loved to talk “electrical talk” so much that much of it went over my head! Wayne- may you be relaxing on a beach in Heaven enjoying a good strong drink. It’s well deserved. Miss you. RIP Wayne!!

Thank-you to all. My father and I became very close these past few years. He really was a funny man. Very witty. I am so much into sports because he taught me. He taught me just about everything I know. I am still in shock. It wasn't supposed to be like this I'm heartbroken 💔 I love you dad. I know you will take care of us from heaven.
