“To Patsy, Debbie and Kenny,Our families shared something that time or distance could never take away. Red Wolff and Red Williams had one of those very rare friendships, that although they didn't see each other later in life, that bond never went away. The same is true with Patsy and my Mom. Please know that we will forever love and miss our "Uncle Red" and we are truly grieving your loss. We love you and will forever treasure those happy memories of our times together as families. Love always, Sonya and Judy
