“ I can remember when Uncle Billy lived with us in Audubon after his back surgery. I would come home from school and sit with him watching television. He was a fun loving guy and will be sorely missed. He was a great Uncle! Our thoughts are with the family. Love, your niece Jeannie

“ Billy was one of the nicest (and sometimes craziest) people I knew! Great mechanic and body guy with such a great personality! Many, so many fond memories streetrodding with Billy and Eileen, all through the 90's and up. The good times we had.....Like when we all went to the Halloween run in Frederick MD, the guys dressed up as Firemen and the ladies dressed as Dalmatians as we rode around in our bright green 1941 firetruck, (the Misfits fire company) and took first place! Kenny's obsession with the high boots! My heart is heavy.....He will be missed! RIP Billy
